Junior League of Charleston's Charleston Receipts Turns 60

CHARLESTON, SC, March 25, 2010 – Charleston Receipts, the Junior League of Charleston's original cookbook, is celebrating its 60th anniversary this year. This is the oldest cookbook in print for the Association of Junior Leagues International, Inc. In honor of the anniversary, the Junior League of Charleston has launched www.cookinginthesouth.com. This website features Junior League of Charleston products, gift baskets, and famous Tut's Toffee, as well as cooking videos and a blog. To kick off the 60th anniversary, this blog highlights 60 different recipes from Charleston Receipts proving this timeless cookbook is relevant for today's world.

Charleston Receipts is a compilation of 750 regional recipes along with sketches by Charleston artists and was recently featured in the March 2010 edition of Southern Living. For its outstanding preservation of local and regional culinary customs and its benefits to the local community, Charleston Receipts was inducted into the Walter S. McIlhenny Community Cookbooks Hall of Fame in 1990.

The Junior League of Charleston, Inc., is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers.

Since 1923, the Charleston League has raised and awarded millions of dollars through various fundraising activities including the sale of its cookbooks, Charleston Receipts, Charleston Receipts Repeats, Party Receipts, and the latest, Charleston Receipts Album. Currently, the Junior League of Charleston, Inc., serves our tri-county community by collaborating with other nonprofit organizations to combat hunger and homelessness.
