Bulldog Tours to Offer *Joseph's Charleston Adventure

CHARLESTON, SC – Bulldog Tours and the Junior League of Charleston, Inc., have partnered together to offer the most exciting and educational interactive walking tour ever offered in Charleston, Joseph's Charleston Adventure.

Joseph's Charleston Adventure is a children's book that was published in April 1998, and was proclaimed as "The Official Children's Book of Charleston" by Mayor Joseph P. Riley, Jr. in May 1998. Written and illustrated by Laura Jenkins Thompson, a local teacher, the book tells a charming story of a boy who finds a lost dog and helps her find her way home through the beautiful streets of historic Charleston.

The newest addition to the book is the guided and self-guided walking tour which is a sure bet when it comes to attracting young and old alike to the downtown area. The tour begins at

The Battery and ends just a couple of blocks from The City Market and offers exciting activities at each historical stop. Activities are broken into four different age levels, including Preschool, Elementary, Middle and High School/Adult. The book and tour can be purchased at the Charleston Area Convention and Visitors Bureau and at Bulldog Tours.

The tour is designed to be chaperoned by an adult or teacher and takes approximately two hours. Teachers that are interested in booking a Joseph's Charleston Adventure fieldtrip with Bulldog Tours, please visit josephscharlestonadventure.com.

About Bulldog Tours

many of the most infamous and haunted sites. Bulldog was founded in 2001 in an effort to raise money for the preservation of The Old Exchange, one of our country's most historical buildings. To date, Bulldog Tours has raised over $600,000 for this building as well as several others. For more information about Bulldog Tours, please visit <http://www.bulldogtours.com/>.
