Junior League of Charleston's Charleston Receipts Turns 60

CHARLESTON, SC, August 31, 2010 – Charleston Receipts, the Junior League of Charleston's original cookbook, is celebrating its 60th anniversary in November. This is the oldest cookbook in print for the Association of Junior Leagues International, Inc. In honor of the anniversary, the Junior League of Charleston, Inc., has launched www.cookinginthesouth.com. This website features Junior League of Charleston products, gift baskets, and the famous Tut's Toffee, as well as cooking videos and a blog. To kick off the 60th anniversary, this blog highlights 60 different recipes from Charleston Receipts, proving that this timeless cookbook is relevant for today's world.

Charleston Receipts is a compilation of 750 regional recipes along with sketches by Charleston artists. For its outstanding preservation of local and regional culinary customs and its benefits to the local community, Charleston Receipts was inducted into the Walter S. McIlhenny Community Cookbooks Hall of Fame in 1990.

The Junior League of Charleston, Inc., is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers.

Since 1923, the Charleston League has raised and awarded millions of dollars through various fundraising activities including the sale of its cookbooks, Charleston Receipts, Charleston Receipts Repeats, Party Receipts, Joseph's Charleston Adventure and its latest publication, Charleston Receipts Album. To purchase any of the Junior League's products please visit our website, call (843)763-5284, or visit the League at 51 Folly Road, Charleston, SC 29407. Currently, the Junior League of Charleston serves the tri-county community by collaborating with other nonprofit organizations to combat hunger and homelessness.
