Thank you for your gift to The Junior League of Charleston, Inc. Your support and generosity are sincerely appreciated.

The Junior League of Charleston, Inc., is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and meeting the needs of the community. It is one of nearly 300 Leagues worldwide dedicated to these purposes. Since its inception in 1923, the Junior League of Charleston has raised and awarded millions of dollars to meet local needs in areas ranging from education to child abuse to feeding the homeless. In the past decade alone, the League has trained 2,500 community service volunteers. The Junior League of Charleston is currently focusing on combating hunger and homelessness in the tri-county area in collaboration with other local nonprofits. For more information on becoming a member or financially supporting the Charleston league, please call (843) 763-5284 or visit www.jlcharleston.org.
